DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 7-9 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim should refer to other claims in the alternative only. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims 7-9 have not been further treated on the merits.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities.

2. Due to the Article 34 Amendment, the Specification pages are not continuous, i.e., page 2 does not follow page 1, page 3 does not follow 2a. Please resubmit a clean copy.
3. On page 2, there is a reference to claim 1. This sentence should be taken out or changed from "features in claim 1" to "features in the claims."
4. On page 3, there is a reference to claim 11; however, no such claim exists.
5. On page 7, "spring elements (49)" should be changed to "spring elements (44)" because (49) does not exist.

Appropriate correction is required.

Quayle Action

This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters: (1) objections to claims 7-9; and (2) specification informalities.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-6 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

Groebli et al. (US 4,770,621) and Vink (EP 0 956 943 A1) teach a pellet mill with a cylindrical mold comprising adjustable press rollers, and a base that is secured to a shaft of the mold and has hinged to it two pairs of lever arms. See Groebli, Fig. 1, 2; col. 3-6. See also Vink, Fig. 1; para. 17-26. However, neither Groebli nor Vink teach lever arms that are hinged or pivoted to cams of the press rollers. A third reference, Van Benthum (US 6,244,850), teaches cam plates; however, the cam plates are not attached to lever arms. See Fig. 3; col. 2, line 59 – col. 3, line 9. Thus, because of the aforementioned differences between these references, there is no reason to combine the three references without hindsight.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
